Child Support Arrearages

In accordance with Texas Family Code, Section 231.006, the vendor or applicant certifies that the individual or business entity named in this contract, bid, or application is not ineligible to receive the specified grant, loan, or payment and acknowledges that this contract may be terminated, and payment may be withheld if this certification is inaccurate.

A student who is obligated to pay child support and is more than 30 days delinquent is not eligible to receive any state-funded grant or loan.

Are you currently more than 30 days delinquent on child support payments?  No  Yes

If you answered "yes" above, then you are not eligible for any state-funded grant or loan unless one of the following applies. (If applicable to you, make a selection below.)

- All arrearages (late payments) have been paid.
- You are in compliance with a written repayment agreement or court order for the delinquency, or
- The court of jurisdiction over the child support order has granted you an exemption from being denied state-funded grants and loans as part of a court-supervised effort to improve earnings and child support payments.

If none of the above apply to you, then you are not eligible for any state-funded grant or loan.
