

Sex Discrimination, Harassment, and Assault: Del Mar College Title IX Coordinators

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that prohibits sex discrimination in education. It reads: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

--Legal Citation: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 106

(Title IX)

Sex discrimination includes sexual harassment and sexual assault. Title IX applies to many programs at Del Mar College (DMC). While compliance with the law is everyone's responsibility at DMC, listed below are the staff members who have primary responsibility for Title IX compliance.

Title IX Coordinators

To File a Complaint against a Student:

Cheryl Garner

Dean of Student Engagement and Retention

Harvin Student Center, Room 204

361-698-1277

cgarner6@delmar.edu

If you have a complaint against a DMC student for sexual harassment, sex discrimination, or sexual assault, you should contact the Student Engagement and Retention Office. The Dean of Student Engagement and Retention is responsible for Title IX compliance for matters involving students, including training, education, communication, and administration of the grievance procedure for all complaints against DMC students.

To File a Complaint against Faculty, Staff, Vendors or Visitors:

Jerry W. Henry

Director of Human Resources

Heldenfels Administration Bldg., Room 101

361-698-1088

jhenry12@delmar.edu

If you have a complaint against a DMC faculty or staff member or visitor for sexual harassment, sex discrimination, or sexual assault, you should contact the Human Resources Office. The Director of Human Resources is responsible for Title IX compliance for matters involving faculty and staff, including training, education, communication and administration of the grievance procedure for all complaints against faculty, staff, vendors or visitors, including those complaints filed by students.
