

Del Mar TV Programs

Del Mar College will air 11 programs this week and next week on the higher education access channel, cable channel 19.

"Del Mar Now" will air today at 3 and 9 p.m.; tomorrow at 4 p.m.; Saturday at 5:30 p.m.; Sunday at 3 and 5:30 p.m. and Tuesday at 9 p.m.

"The Rococo Period," part two, will air today at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m. and tomorrow at 3 and 4:30 p.m.

"Lev Aronson: Master Cellist" will be shown today at 4 and 8 p.m. and again Tuesday at 9:30 in the evening.

Part six of "Zarabanda" will be shown three times today, at 4:30, 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. and again tomorrow evening at 9:30.

"Making the Most of the Micro," part seven, will be televised today at 5 and 9:30 p.m. and Saturday at 3 p.m. Part eight will air Tuesday at 4:30, 5:30 and 8 p.m.

"To Your Credit" is scheduled for tomorrow at 3:30 p.m.

"Zarabanda," the seventh part, will be shown at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

"Focus on Information" will be televised at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The third part of "Rococo Period" will air at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Jean Renoir's classic treatise on war starring Jean Gabin, Pierre Fresnay and Erich Von Stroheim entitled "Grand Illusion" will air tomorrow evening at 7:30; Saturday at 3:30 p.m. and Sunday at 3:30 p.m. It focuses on French prisoners during World War II and their cultural German commandant.

HELP WANTED
CAMP SHAWONDASSE'S resident