Special Interest Classes for Age 55 and Older

Register by calling (361) 698-1298 or come by the Special Services Office, Room 188 in the Harvin Student Center. Doctor's permission required for swimming and water exercises. A small fee for water exercise and swimming classes is charged to cover the expense of providing a lifeguard. See calendar on other side for semester dates.

When you park, please leave clearance for pedestrians to use the sidewalk. If you enter on Dicianna Drive, be sure you use the proper lane. We recommend, that if you bring a tote bag, you put your name on the outside of the bag.

Seniors in non-computer classes may receive a Senior Citizens Education ID card. Your ID card entitles you to attend most campus activities and to use the pool during recreational swim hours (hours to be announced).

What a Deal! Tuition-Free Classes for Age 65 and Older!

Del Mar College offers courses to Seniors 65 or older, tuition free. Any course listed in the credit or noncredit class schedule, whether academic, developmental, job preparation, occupational, or personal enrichment, may be taken if space is available.

Sign up by telephoning (361) 698-1298. Participants do not receive credit and must purchase their own books and materials. Participants must also pay all applicable fees. Fees can vary from $11 to over $100 depending on the course.

Volunteer Opportunities

For Seniors age 55 or older, Del Mar College offers free special interest classes. If you are an expert with computers, want to share your love of great literary works, know how to crochet, knit, or tat, or have another talent, volunteer to be an instructor.

In our computer classes, we need volunteers with computer knowledge to act as instructors (training in instructional methods will be provided) as well as for floor instructors, who circulate around the classroom providing individual assistance to participants.

Call 698-1298 to find out how you can help!
