Special Interest Classes

For seniors age 55 and older, Del Mar College offers free special interest classes. If you are an expert with computers, want to share your love of great literary works, know how to crochet, knit or tat, or have another talent, volunteer to be an instructor. Just call us, and let us know your interests. We will work with you to provide a room, to schedule and promote your class, and to register participants.

Our current special interest classes are Beginning and Intermediate Swimming, Water Exercise, Intermediate Spanish, and a variety of computer courses, from Keyboarding (required for those typing less than 20 words a minute) to Surfing the Net (for those already comfortable in a Windows environment). Call (361) 698-1298 to be placed on a waiting list.

New Special Interest Class: Public Speaking

When you need to speak in public, are you filled with excitement or do you have butterflies in your stomach? Learn to be comfortable and assured when speaking in public, by attending our new special interest class on Tuesdays at 2:30 p.m. Luis Corona, our newest volunteer, will help you express yourself to an audience. He has many years' experience in showing people how to get those butterflies under control. Call (361) 698-1298 to reserve a place in this exciting new class!

What a Deal! Tuition-Free Classes for Age 65 and Older!

Del Mar College offers tuition-free courses to seniors 65 and older. Any course listed in the credit or noncredit class schedule, whether academic, developmental, job preparation, occupational, or personal enrichment, may be taken if space is available.

Sign up by calling (361) 698-1298. Participants do not receive credit and must purchase their own books and materials. For noncredit classes, they must also pay all applicable fees.
